

Welcome to FASH 455 Global Merchandising Strategies Winter 2025!

To get started, please take some time and read through your syllabus- located under the content tab within Brightspace, and attached in this introduction. You will find a great deal of key information in there, including the structure of this online course, requirements, policies, and course schedule.

Once we begin, I will be sending out a weekly message to you on SUNDAY afternoons by 4:00 p.m. entitled: "Week ____: What I must complete this week" - In there I will go over that week's schedule, what is on the calendar, and any upcoming assignments. In addition, you will find the key learning objectives that you should comprehend included with each weekly lesson.

A course schedule can be found in this announcement, as well as on the Brightspace site under course content: Syllabus

We will cover a lot of material over the course of the five weeks so please make sure you are keeping up with the work load and assignments.

The nature of this course, thru assignments, forums and online discussions is designed to encourage participation, collaboration, comprehension and challenge each other's perspectives concerning topics at hand. I ask that everyone be respectful of each other's opinions when responding to forums and any other discussions had.

I have made the textbook we will use optional this semester; if you would like to purchase, I suggest finding a used version.

Now here's a little insight to see how my past experiences have shaped how I conduct this course:

I graduated in 1996 from UMASS Amherst; with a Bachelor's of Science Degree in Apparel Marketing. I began my career in the Bloomingdales Merchant Development Program as an Assistant Buyer, from there I went on to a 19 year career with the Nine West Group where I started as an accessory buyer and spent the last six years of my career at Nine West as the Vice President of Merchandising.

I always had a desire to teach but working 14 hour days and commuting to NYC from Connecticut, did not leave the time to do it. In 2016 when I left Nine West I took some time to enjoy my family and in 2017 I was given the opportunity to bring my 19+ years of experience into the classroom and share with all of you my real life-experience and learnings. I hope you find it helpful and interesting.

I enjoy spending time with my family and officially an empty nester as our youngest is now a freshman in college. I truly enjoy each and every one of my students and absolutely love teaching! My "door" is always open!

I look forward to getting to know all of you, and to a great winter semester! Stay Well!
