

Ronald Ferris, Director of Business Development, Mid-Hudson Works

For the past 15 years, Ronald has been in production operations and currently he is the Director of Business Development. His organization has been working closely with manufacturers, startups, solopreneurs, and inventors for 75 years. As part of the company mission, Mid-Hudson Works helps them to define processes, create SOPs, find efficiencies, and bring their businesses to scale.