PARENT & FAMILY
HANDBOOK

A GUIDE TO THE RESOURCES AVAILABLE TO YOUR STUDENT AT MARIST

Dear First-Year Parents and Families,

First and foremost, congratulations on making it to such a momentous time in your student's academic and personal life.

While this milestone brings great personal excitement, we understand that with this new adventure comes nervousness, uncertainty, and questions. With this Parent & Family Handbook, First Year Programs hopes to alleviate some of that stress.

On the Table of Contents page, each office's name is a clickable link. From there, each individual page includes a link to the department's website. Please understand that not all information lives in this Handbook, but that this tool is meant to be a jumping-off point for your own exploration. Oftentimes, the breadth of the work that our colleagues do cannot be captured in a single page. Find more information and get connected to the offices on campus via the links on their designated page.

We hope that you get use out of this Handbook, and wish you the best in your student's transition to life at Marist College. First Year Programs will be here every step of the way.

Warmest regards,

The Office of First Year Programs

Mon-Fri: 8:30am-5pm

marist.trio | aimmarist | maristoa

marist.edu/academics/academic-resources/accommodations-accessibility

Office Location: Donnelly 226

Mission: The mission of the Office of Accommodations and Accessibility is to support students with documented disabilities in becoming empowered, independent learners by providing the appropriate accommodations and services necessary to access the educational opportunities at Marist College.

Key Services for New Marist Students: Accommodations are determined on an individual, case-by-case basis to meet the needs of each student and may vary depending upon the disability and/or course content. They include, but are not limited to:

- Textbooks in alternate format
- Notetakers
- Readers
- Scribes
- Testing accommodations
- Use of assistive technology

The Office of Accommodations and Accessibility also provides academic, personal, and career counseling, as well as assistance with course selection, registration, and advocacy on an as-needed basis.

Who is Eligible: To receive services and accommodations, students must identify themselves to the Office of Accommodations and Accessibility and present official documentation of their disability. In general, a disability is defined as a physical or mental impairment, which substantially limits one or more major life activities, i.e., walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning, working, caring for oneself, and performing manual tasks. Disabilities may include, but are not limited to the following:

- Attention deficit disorder
- Cerebral palsy
- Deafness or hearing impairments
- Learning disabilities
- Orthopedic impairments
- Traumatic brain injury
- Blindness or visual impairments
- Chronic illnesses
- Epilepsy or seizure disorders
- Psychiatric disabilities
- Speech disorders

All documentation regarding disabilities is confidential. If a student believes it is important for other members of the Marist community to know about their disability, it is the student's responsibility to inform them.

Academic Core/Liberal Studies

cathleen.muller@marist.edu | 845-575-5095

By Appointment
marist.edu/academics/core

Mission: To introduce students to the essential ideas and skills that comprise the disciplines of the liberal arts and the sciences and to develop in students crucial 21st-century skills, the ability to integrate and synthesize information, and an awareness of their values and the ethical implications of their choices.

Programming & Key Services for New Marist Students: From the First Year Seminar to the senior-year Capping course, students learn to integrate different areas of study, to exchange ideas actively with faculty and peers, and to sharpen their abilities as writers, speakers, and critical thinkers.

The Common Read facilitates these conversations throughout students' first year at the College. The 2023-2024 Common Read, Felix Ever After, by Kacen Callender, will provide students with the opportunity to discuss crucial social issues and engage in thought-provoking programming throughout the year.

Overview of the Marist Core

I. Academic Foundation courses:

- First Year Seminar (4 credits)
- Writing for College (3 credits)

Philosophical Perspectives, a distribution course taken by all students (see below), also constitutes part of the first-year common academic experience.

II. Distribution courses: 36 credits total

Breadth: one course in each of the following areas

- Philosophy (required course: Philosophical Perspectives)
- Literature
- Ethics & Justice
- Mathematics
- Fine Arts
- Natural Science
- History
- Social Science

Pathway: 4 courses addressing a focused interdisciplinary area of study. Please see below for a complete list of Pathways.

III. Skill requirements: 0 stand-alone credits

- Every student must take at least one "intensive" Core or major course in Technological Competency and Public Presentation.

IV: Capping: 3 credits

- Taken within the major, this course involves a culminating research experience that draws upon students' knowledge, skills, and values.

First Year Seminars

Your child has selected their top five FYS classes and will be placed in one of those FYS classes as their schedules are developed by the Registrar. Although seminar topics vary, every section of the FYS serves as an introduction to college-level academic work and addresses the same set of essential 21st-century skills: writing, critical thinking, information literacy, and public presentation. Throughout the semester, students will learn not just about course material, but also explore ways to be better learners, thinkers, and members of the college community.

Please contact the Director of the First Year Seminar, Dr. Patricia F. Tarantello, at Patricia.F.Tarantello@marist.edu with any questions about the course.

Choosing a Pathway

Recognizing that today's - and tomorrow's - challenges are not confined to separate academic subject areas, the Marist Core engages students in a 4-course interdisciplinary Pathway. This set of courses will address a focused question or area of study from at least 3 disciplinary perspectives.

Language study is particularly crucial in today's global community. Students may pursue proficiency through a Pathway in French, Spanish, or Italian, or take language courses as part of Pathways engaging with a particular culture.

Whatever the Pathway, its courses may count toward a minor, a second major, or any subject that enriches a student's academic experience. Ideally, students should choose a Pathway by the time registration takes place in late spring of their first year. Students are not allowed to design their own Pathway. A list and descriptions of each Pathway and lists of affiliated courses are available on the Core/LS website.

If you have questions about the Pathways or any aspect of the Marist Core, please contact Core/LS Director Dr. C. R. Muller at cathleen.muller@marist.edu

Center for Advising and Academic Services

advising@marist.edu | 845-575-3500

Mon-Fri: 8:30am-5pm

maristadvising | marist.edu/academic-resources/advising

Office Location: Donnelly 224

Mission: The Center for Advising & Academic Services (CAAS) mission fosters student success via programs, services, resources, and referrals designed to help students develop skills that empower their educational, career, and life goals.

Key Services for New Marist Students:

- Support students in academic risk by issuing warning letters for low mid-term grades, conferring with faculty regarding student academic progress, placing students on probation for poor academic performance, and processing academic dismissals when a student has fallen below the College's standard.
- Process notifications in the event of a crisis, such as a death in the family or a documented illness, where the student will be absent from class for four or more consecutive days.
- Process leave of absence and withdrawal requests from the College.
- Review credit overage requests.
- Review appeals of academic calendar deadlines.
- Provide academic consultation.
- Process the Dean's List.
- Assign a skilled academic advisor supported by CAAS, based upon area of study, to provide assistance in helping your student design the most meaningful academic program. Marist provides an advising system, which requires students to meet with their advisor(s) for course registration, course withdrawals and long-range planning. (Note: CAAS makes an initial assignment, but students in most majors can request to change their advisor).
 - College academic advisors are very different from high school guidance counselors. Advisors provide input and make suggestions, but it is up to your student to integrate the advice they receive and to leverage it to his/her best advantage. Encourage your student to be aware of the choices they are making because, ultimately, they are responsible for those choices. We encourage you, as parents or guardians, to underscore the importance of the advising relationship and to urge your student to make every effort to get to know their advisor and establish a close working relationship.
- Maintain the my.Marist advising portal. In this portal, they have access to many advising resources, including our social media feed, their advisor information, and various important documents including the Academic Advising Planner, the First Year Advisor, and monthly newsletters.
- Produce the Academic Advising Planner (AAP). The AAP is a student's go-to preparation tool that will set common ground with regards to the academic experience at Marist and will assist them in planning their academic career and life after Marist.

The Center for Career Services

Mon-Fri: 8:30am-5pm

marist.edu/academic-resources/career-services | Marist Career Services | MaristCCS | MaristCCS

Office Location: Dyson Center

Your role as a Parent:

You should encourage your student to visit Career Services early in their Marist experience. The Center for Career Services offers many programs to help students with internships and their post-Marist plans, whether it be the world of work or graduate school. Our goal is to help students prepare for their career. Many students will face important decisions as soon as they arrive on campus that can affect their choice of major and future career plans. The staff of Career Services can work with your son or daughter to assist them with their decision making and help them develop a career success plan.

What is the central mission of Career Services?

The Center for Career Services offers appointments for Marist College students and alumni for the following aspects of professional development:

- Career Coaching
- Internship Opportunities
- Cover Letter Assistance
- Interview Preparation
- Employer and Alumni Connections
- Job Search
- Gap Year/Alternative Career Options
- Resume Review
- Graduate School Advisement
- Scholarship & Fellowship Advisement

Which programs/services would you recommend to a first-year student?

The first year is an excellent time to begin exploring potential career areas and, if a student is undeclared, potential majors. FOCUS2, an online career assessment and research tool linked to our website, assists students in understanding their interests, values, abilities, and personality as they relate to majors and careers. Attendance at career workshops and alumni and employer panels is also an excellent idea. The career fairs held each fall and spring present excellent opportunities for students to interact with recruiters, company representatives, and Marist alumni. Students are encouraged to ask questions and learn about potential internships and employment. The first year is also a very good time to take a Career Planning & Decision Making course.

Will Career Services help my student find an internship?

If your student is enrolled in a curriculum that requires an internship, they will work with their Internship Faculty Coordinator to identify and register the opportunity. Students enrolled in a major without a curricular requirement may participate in an elective credit or paid internship. Career Services assists students in locating both paid and elective internship opportunities. More details about the Internship Program can be viewed on our Web site at <https://www.marist.edu/academic-resources/career-services/students/internship>

Does Career Services help students find jobs after graduation?

In reality, the job search should begin well before graduation. Our emphasis is on providing students with the tools and skills needed to complete a successful job search and also to provide opportunities to connect with prospective employers. We provide virtual and on-campus interview events and experiences. We work collaboratively with employers, associations and recruiting consortia to expose our students to varied employment initiatives. In addition, we have an active Alumni Network that will enable students to speak with Marist graduates currently working in their chosen fields. The Career Services Staff continues to attract new employers to our campus. The Marist brand continues to be highly regarded among prestigious employers.

What about graduate study and fellowships/scholarships?

Career Services includes one staff member dedicated to assisting students in the graduate study decision. This support includes guidance on identifying appropriate graduate programs, understanding the different components of the grad school application, and preparing competitive application essays. The Graduate School and Fellowship Advisor also hosts grad school information sessions every semester and organizes annual field trips to an Ivy League institution to explore graduate study options. Individual assistance with identifying and applying for national and international fellowships and scholarships is also available.

Academic Monitoring

Our office monitors the NCAA eligibility of all student-athletes and maintains records on each of their degree requirements and progress.

Academic Success Program (ASP)

Each semester, specific student-athletes are mandated to participate in this program as a result of previous academic performance. Their requirements are:

- Weekly or bi-weekly advising meetings to determine academic success strategies and reinforce good study habits
- Weekly study hall requirements, with game suspensions imposed for missed hours

Tutoring

Tutoring is available through a grant provided by the NCAA at no charge to the student-athlete. Tutors assist students with course material, study skills, etc. Tutors are typically available for all subjects and are obtained through the Academic Learning Center.

Proofreading/Research Assistance

CSAE offers free proofreading with a tutor from the Writing Center, as well as research assistance from one of Cannavino Library's Research Librarians.

Travel Letters

CSAE provides documentation to faculty for student-athletes missing classes due to athletic travel and competition. Student-athletes are expected to follow up with their instructors to make arrangements to complete the required coursework.

Progress Reports

These forms are distributed electronically to faculty at various points in the semester to obtain specific information related to classroom performance. Completed reports are distributed to coaches and CSAE's athletic advisors and reviewed with student-athletes.

Exam/Quiz Proctoring

CSAE staff can assist faculty in the administration of exams and quizzes to student-athletes who miss classes because of athletic travel and competition. Exams and/or quizzes can be e-mailed, hand delivered, or mailed to the Director, who will arrange a testing time for the student-athletes.

NCAA Student Athlete Affairs

The program is designed to give student-athletes the support and skills needed to become effective citizens, inspired leaders, and motivated activists. Programming is provided in various areas, such as violence prevention, drug & alcohol education, nutrition and eating disorders, career development, leadership, and community service. Student-athletes can also get involved in our Peer Mentor Program, Black Student-Athlete Alliance (BSAA) or our female leadership program, LEAP.

Return to Learn Policy

Marist Sports Medicine evaluates student-athletes diagnosed with concussions and determines a plan for them to return to academic activities. CSAE disseminates this plan to faculty to ensure the student athlete receives the recommended academic accommodations, when warranted.

Key Services for New Marist Students: Marist College offers both Apple and Lenovo computers through the Computer Store.

- The Apple On Campus Program offers a wide variety of Mac laptops and desktops, with some recommended configurations for use here at Marist. These are offered at a discounted cost via Apple Education pricing through the Computer Store website. By default, Macs come with a 1-year limited warranty. Marist strongly recommends purchasing AppleCare+, which covers defects and accidental damage (subject to a service fee) for 3-years.
- The Lenovo ThinkPad University Program (TPU) offers pre-configured Marist-ready ThinkPad laptops at a discounted price. These laptops can be purchased through the Computer Store website via our vendor, Connection. These laptops come with a 3-year manufacturer's warranty, which can be extended to 4-years and include accidental damage protection via warranty upgrades.

If you purchase a Lenovo ThinkPad or Apple Mac through the computer store link (www.marist.edu/computerstore), our Client Technologies/ResNet technicians are certified to handle most in-warranty repairs on-site (Mac accidental damage repairs are handled directly via Apple for those who purchase AppleCare+). A loaner laptop is available for extended repairs while on campus. For all other computers, ResNet can assist with diagnosing a problem, but cannot repair them, as they are only certified for these specific programs.

The Computer Store also carries a wide range of accessories, such as flash drives, solid state drives, surge protectors, mice, keyboards, printer cables, HDMI cables, Ethernet cables, and chargers. Additional items can be ordered if not in stock.

Visa, MasterCard, Discover Card, cash or check accepted.

LEARN TO LEAD AT MARIST

One of the largest and most popular organization on campus, the Emerging Leaders Program (ELP) is a unique, exciting, no-cost, non-credit certificate program that provides students with ongoing and varied opportunities to define, discover, and develop their leadership skills.

The ELP offers students an opportunity to:

- Advance the key skills that are essential to personal and professional success
- Interact with interdisciplinary experts
- Build resume credentials
- Connect with other student leaders and learner
- Expand their networks both on and off campus

Like a class session, workshops are 75 minutes long. Students who complete six or more workshops during the academic year will receive an ELP certificate of program completion at a special recognition event. They will also have an opportunity to proudly display a digital badge. Students can earn a certificate in each year of study.

In addition, and by invitation only, students also have an opportunity to use the ELP certificate requirements in partial fulfillment of the requirements for lifetime membership in the National Society of Leadership and Success (NSLS). Marist has one of the largest and most active NSLS chapters in the country. There is a small, one-time fee for membership in the National Society, which offers lifetime benefits and program access. Special invitations to join the NSLS are sent from the organization via Marist email.

Interested students should keep an eye on their Marist email for the workshop listings, which are sent during the first two weeks of the semester, and they should respond ASAP. ELP information can also be found on the my.Marist portal under the Student tab. There students can find event descriptions, online registration information, and an FAQ. There is no additional advertising for this program as space is limited and hundreds of students participate. We encourage your student to join ELP and NSLS to grow their leadership skills during their time at Marist.

The motto of the Office of First Year Programs (FYP) is “the end depends on the beginning.” Through our unique professional mentoring program, FYP offers students a bright beginning by providing the support, skills, and connections necessary to make the academic, social, and personal transition to Marist College.

Each new student to Marist has a First Year Programs Coordinator who serves as their professional Mentor. Mentors help students think about their educational and personal goals and reflect on what they are learning both in and outside the classroom. In this way, the FYP staff serves as liaisons in linking new students to the rest of the campus and to the unique array of co-curricular, faculty and support services Marist offers. Mentor-student interactions take place in one-on-one and small group settings, in skills building workshops, and in continuing orientation activities such as: Welcome Week, First Fall, Faculty Supper Series, the Peer Mentor Program, First Year Fellas, and other programs that are part of our Personal Development Core. We walk with our students throughout their entire first year at Marist.

Resident FYP Coordinators are administrative staff members assigned to live and work in the first-year residence areas. They collaborate with the Resident Director and student staff in their building to create a positive learning environment and to foster a sense of community. The Associate Director/Commuter Coordinator is the administrator responsible for providing mentoring services for commuting students. The Associate Director/Commuter Coordinator works with the Commuter Student Council, Student Government Association (SGA), and Peer Commuter Mentors to achieve an engaging and welcoming learning environment within the Murray Student Center. Transfer students are also considered first-year students, and they also have a Mentor, a peer program, and a transfer representative on SGA.

First Year Programs Mentors live and/or have offices in Champagnat Hall, Leo Hall, Marian Hall, Midrise, and Sheahan Hall. The Commuter Student Coordinator office is adjacent to the Student Lounge on the lower level of the Murray Student Center.

Whether through innovative programs or individual appointments, Mentors are a dedicated group of student development professionals who work to make the first-year experience meaningful, memorable, successful, and enjoyable. Please encourage your students to make the most of the programs, services, and support offered to new Marist students.

Overview

Marist Health Services is located in on the third floor of the Student Center. All students who pay the Health Services fee, which is required for undergraduate students, are eligible for services at Health Services free of charge throughout the semester.

Marist Health Services is staffed by physicians, nurse practitioners, physician assistants, and registered nurses. We provide evaluation and treatment of common problems such as acute illness and minor injuries, as well as primary care services and management of chronic medical concerns.

Students are seen by appointment. Every effort is made to deal with urgent issues promptly. Emergencies or problems that are beyond the resources of Health Services are referred to Vassar Brothers Medical Center or Westchester Medical Center (see below for contact information).

When needed, Marist Health Services refers students and families to community health resources, such as medical specialists, physical therapists, and dentists. Student health fees do not cover such visits and students will need to arrange their own transportation. If you anticipate the need for special care, it is most efficient to begin by checking with your health insurance carrier about coverage and “preferred” or “in-network” providers in the Poughkeepsie area.

Students can also contact the Office of Safety and Security for assistance at 845-471-1822.

Students are encouraged to seek care at Emergency One (4274 Albany Post Road, Suite 1, Hyde Park, NY 12538) for non-emergent illnesses, as their insurance plans permit. Hours and insurance participation details can be found at the Emergency One website, appointments can be booked on the website. Before opting out of the Marist Student Health Insurance Plan, be sure to review the details of the student's personal health insurance coverage to be certain it is adequate for the Poughkeepsie area, which may be considered "out of network" for some plans. Proof of health insurance is required annually for all full-time undergraduates (12 or more credit hours) enrolled at Marist College.

Excuse Notes

Marist Health Services does not provide excuses for routine illnesses, injuries or mental health problems that may lead to missed classes, labs, studios, exams, or deadlines. This policy resembles those of most other colleges and universities and is consistent with the recommendations of the American College Health Association.

Marist expects that students will be honest with their professors regarding their ability to complete work and professors are expected to work with students on these issues. The staff at the Center for Advising & Academic Services are available to provide assistance to students or faculty members who have concerns about attendance issues.

Absence of 4 days or longer

If a student has an illness or family emergency that will result in 4 or more days of absence, the student should contact individual professors as soon as possible, as well as communicating with the Center for Advising & Academic Services.

Intellectual Property Rights

File sharing programs such as uTorrent, Vuze, Popcorn Time, and BitTorrent have become popular for transferring files between people, or for viewing. While these programs can have legitimate uses, many people use them to share copyrighted material (movies, TV show episodes, and music) in violation of the law. Sharing copyrighted materials is theft. Even if a person has paid for the movie or song, if it is on a computer with file sharing enabled, the person may be in violation of the law and College policy.

Marist College takes intellectual property rights and the Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA) very seriously. Any student found to be in violation will be removed from the network and referred to the Office of Student Conduct for disciplinary action. Mission: The James A. Cannavino Library supports the College's teaching, learning, and scholarship mission by providing information resources, advanced technologies, services, and facilities for research and study.

Resources

The James A. Cannavino Library has a vast collection of print and electronic books, journals, DVDs, and streaming video titles, and over 100 research databases. Current students can access the full slate of Library research databases, full text electronic journal articles, and eBooks from anywhere in the world.

Research Help

Reference librarians are available to help students with their research. Students are strongly encouraged to visit the Reference Desk, contact us via Chat Reference, phone (845) 575-3292, or use the on-line "Ask a Librarian" form (<https://libguides.marist.edu/ask>). All questions are welcome! Reference Librarians are available most weeks Sunday - Thursday until 10:00 PM, and Friday and Saturday until 8:00 PM. Librarians often provide specialized instruction on specific topics or for specific assignments in Marist classes. Students can also schedule individual consultations with a librarian for more extensive projects or questions.

Study Facilities

The library has almost 600 study seats and 15 collaborative study rooms. In the E-scriptorium, the largest computer lab in the library, 46 workstations are available for conducting library research. Each has MS Office and specialized software to support many Marist classes. There are additional workstations located throughout the building. Wireless laptops are available for use by Marist students while studying in the Library. Students with their own laptops (or other Wi-Fi enabled devices) can connect to the wireless network as well.

Short-term, Faculty-led Programs

Marist Abroad offers a series of short-term three credit academic programs during winter intersession, spring break, and as a spring semester attachment. Marist Abroad, Continued

Eligibility

- Semester/Academic Year: Sophomores, juniors, and seniors are eligible. Students are encouraged to begin planning in their first year, if possible. Applicants are required to have a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.5; some programs require a higher GPA.
- Short-term, Faculty-led/Summer: Eligibility varies according to program. Each student must meet with the Program Director to receive permission to enroll in a program. The required minimum GPA for participation on a short-term study abroad program is 2.0 cumulative, and 2.5 for summer programs.

Cost

Semester/Academic Year: In most cases, Marist Abroad semester and academic-year program costs are roughly equivalent to tuition and housing costs on the Marist campus. Generally, Marist Abroad participants may apply much of their financial aid (loans, scholarships, etc.) to study abroad costs. Short-term, Faculty-led/Summer: Costs for short-term programs vary depending on destination(s).

Other International Opportunities

- Marist offers two First Year Abroad programs: the Freshman Florence Experience (FFE), and the Freshman Dublin Experience (FDE). These programs are for the full first year at our partner locations taking Marist courses and working with Marist staff. These students join their Poughkeepsie peers as sophomores, and frequently study abroad again.
- Marist Italy Bachelor's Degree Programs: The Italy campus is a symbol of Marist's commitment to global education; it provides students a unique opportunity to grow as world citizens while earning Marist degrees entirely in Florence. Offering a wide range of Bachelor's degrees, Florence is an ideal location for Marist students to learn by living and experiencing entirely new cultures. All the programs offered in Italy are designed to build on the unique strengths of Florence and to treat the city and cultures as extensions of the classroom.

Office Location: Donnelly 241

Marist Money is a convenient service the College offers students. Money is put onto the student's ID card and can be used to make purchases on and off campus. It is safe and convenient to use while eliminating ATM fees and the need to carry cash! Campus services that accept Marist Money are Bookstore, Campus Dining Facilities, Digital Publication Center, College Activities, Post Office, and the Computer Store. Off campus services include local restaurants, convenience stores and pizzerias. Purchases of alcohol, tobacco, lottery tickets, and gift cards are not allowed with Marist Money. For more information regarding the Marist Money program please visit our website: www.marist.edu/maristmoney.

Where does a student go to report a stolen or lost ID card?

A lost or stolen Marist ID card must be reported immediately to either Marist Card Services or the Office of Safety and Security located in Donnelly Hall. Once the card is reported lost or stolen, the account is frozen and protected. There is a nonrefundable $20.00 replacement fee for lost ID Cards.

How will a student know when his/her account is running low?

Account balances are available on myMarist portal. This statement allows the student to view their balance for Marist Money, Thrifty Cash, and meal usage. A student may also check their balance at any Marist Money reader, Dining Services cash register, or at Card Services located in Donnelly Hall DN 241. It is the student's responsibility to keep track of purchases made, allowing them to manage their own account.

How can additional funds be deposited to a Marist Money account?

Deposits may be made to an account in person, on-line, or over the phone with cash, check or credit card. While there is no minimum for cash deposits, there is a minimum of $25.00 for credit card deposits. If a deposit is made by check, it should be payable to Marist Money and mailed to Marist Card Services. There is a $15.00 charge for any returned check. For on-line deposits, please go to our web site, www.marist.edu/maristmoney, and select "Make A Deposit" from the menu on the left. When making a deposit, the depositor will need the student's CWID#.

How does a student obtain a copy of his/her transactions?

A student may email Card Services from their Marist email account requesting a detailed statement or visit Card Services at Donnelly DN 241.

If there is a balance of funds in a Marist Money Account, what happens?

The account balance will remain from year to year. If you are graduating or leaving the college, fund balances will be applied to any outstanding debt. You may request a refund, in writing, of any remaining funds of $20.00 or greater, through Marist Card Services. Please note that cash cannot be withdrawn from Marist Money.

The Marist Money account should not be confused with Thrifty Cash, which is associated with the College's Dining plan, offering students a minimal declining balance for dining services.

marist.edu/student-life/activities-organizations/rotc

Office Location: Kirk House

Mission: Army ROTC is a 4-year leadership internship program that ultimately results in receiving a Commission as a Second Lieutenant in the United States Army. ROTC Cadets can request service on Active Duty or in the Army Reserve or Army National Guard. Students can enroll in ROTC without incurring a military obligation during Freshman or Sophomore year. Marist ROTC is an extension of Fordham University's ROTC program.

Basic Enrollment Criteria:

- Full time student (at least 12 credits/semester)
- Cumulative GPA above 2.0 for participation, 2.5 for Scholarship consideration
- Currently be a United States citizen or become a US citizen prior to graduation.
- Be in good health.

Army ROTC Scholarships: Army ROTC awards 2, 3 and 4-year scholarships. These awards are based solely on merit. Scholarships cover 100% of tuition and fees, plus money for books and a monthly stipend. Marist College provides free room and board to recipients during paid scholarship years. Students who do not receive an ROTC scholarship are still able to participate in ROTC and pursue a commission.

Marist College ROTC Financial Incentive: Marist student cadets without an Army ROTC scholarship are eligible for a $2,000 per year reduction from their account. Eligibility is based on attendance.

Physical Training: Army ROTC Cadets conduct early morning (before academic classes) physical fitness training 2-3 times per week.

Military Science: Cadets attend classroom-based Military classes, the core curriculum of ROTC, one to three hours, once per week. Juniors and Seniors attend these classes at Fordham University in the Bronx.

Leadership Lab: Army ROTC Cadets perform three hours of Leadership Lab per week. Labs provide a performance-oriented learning environment in which Cadets receive practical opportunities to apply skills learned in the classroom. Lab is held at Fordham University.

- Investigator: The department also has an Investigator who conducts follow-up investigations. In addition, the Investigator, in cooperation with the Office of Housing and Residential Life, conducts Crime Prevention seminars at residence halls or floor meetings.
- Patrol - There are three patrol shifts per day. A Supervisor is in command of the patrol operation for the shift. He/she supervises a dispatcher (who logs calls and monitors the fire alarm system) and three to five patrol officers who work both on foot posts or vehicle patrols.

Spiritual Life and Service

spirituallifeandservice@marist.edu | 845-575-2275

Mon-Fri: 8:30am-5pm

marist.edu/student-life/community/campus-ministry

Office Location: Byrne House

Mission: Spiritual Life & Service (SLS) welcomes students from ALL FAITHS to take part in one, several, or all the activities we provide. We are the largest student organization on campus with over 1000 members. Two of the Chaplains live in Freshmen Residence Halls and are available to students in the evening and on weekends.

Monthly COMPASS Community Meetings: We meet by year levels, on the first Monday night of each month for fellowship, prayer, and input.

Service Programs: Our Community Service Program provides weekly opportunities for students to volunteer for two hours each week working in local schools and after-school programs with children – tutoring, recreation, etc. Students may also volunteer at an assisted living facility for the elderly in which all transportation is provided. Seasonal Charity Events: Hunger Walk, Giving Tree, Clothing Drive

Retreats: SLS offers a variety of retreat experiences for students from a Freshmen Retreat to Meditation, Hiking, Outdoor Adventure, or any retreat students may want. Retreats are a great way to disconnect from your routine and connect to people with shared interests. Programs are explained at our general monthly meetings.

Catholic Connections:

- This Catholic student group meets weekly.
- Catholic Mass is celebrated on campus at Our Lady Seat of Wisdom Chapel on Sundays at 6:30 PM when school is in session.
- Reconciliation is offered before Mass.

Arise: Arise, the non-denominational student group welcomes any Christian, generally protestant, who wish to continue their faith journey with like-minded students through weekly Bible Study and monthly Prayer and Praise on campus.

Jewish Students-Hillel: Services offered include monthly Shabbats, a Chanukah lighting & party, and Seder Meal.

Interfaith: In response to the growing diversity of our campus community, SLS likes to keep open lines of communication between the various faiths represented by our students. To enable this, an Interfaith Board has been established to ensure the spiritual needs of students are met throughout the year, and that there are no barriers to one's expression of faith. The Board facilitates discussions between faith groups and supports the efforts of the various faith groups on campus.

Men & Women Spirit Group: We host Spirit groups for both Men and Women (separately) throughout each semester that meet weekly for one hour. Traditionally, they meet by year level. The Men have an additional Men's Spirit group for gay men, and there are opportunities for the entire LGBTQ+ community to have a female-oriented group as well. Topics include issues that young college (age appropriate) people deal with as well as how to live as a spiritual person while balancing the trends of campus life. Topics arise naturally from the students in each group. Both Men's and Women's Spirit groups are facilitated by one of the campus ministers.

They offer trips as well to see blockbuster movie premieres in the theatre at a reduced cost. Experience all the benefits of Marist's proximity to New York City by snagging tickets to see the world-famous Christmas Spectacular featuring the legendary Rockettes.

Student Activities aims to enrich students outside the classroom with fun and exciting events and experiential learning through the Red Fox Enrichment program. Students will earn priority points for on campus housing room selection while learning to create brand new culinary creations, knit in a student-led Stitches class, enhance their guitar playing skills, or destress with yoga and Pilates.

Student Employment Opportunities

The friendly faces you see around the Murray Student Center are not just their professional staff. They are one of the largest student employers on campus. If you have been awarded Federal Work Study, come by the Student Activities table at the Student Financial Service table at the Job Fair on the first Wednesday of the fall semester and apply using Handshake to be part of the team! They hire for many student positions including the Student Activities Operations Crew, Event Technicians, and Marketing Team. There are also opportunities for students to move into managerial roles and help to supervise their peers during day to day building operations.

Student Programming Council

The Student Programming Council (SPC) coordinates entertainment offered both on and off campus at Marist. SPC works closely with the Student Activities office to host comedy clubs, coffeehouse performances, bingo nights, concerts, and off campus trips to Broadway shows, sporting events, Six Flags Fright Fest, ski trips to Belleayre Mountain and more! Members of SPC have an opportunity to meet new people, gain leadership skills, and work with a team of students who share the same goal of bringing students together and building a sense of community. During the spring semester, the students in SPC have the opportunity to plan a large-scale concert for the entire Marist community to attend. Previous artists include, Goo Goo Dolls, Lupe Fiasco, Girl Talk, Jason Derulo, 3OH!3, Sammy Adams, Kid Ink, Big Sean, All Time Low, Bleachers, X Ambassadors, A Boogie Wit Da Hoodie, Hunter Hayes, and ASAP Ferg, The Driver Era, and Saint Motel, and Baby Tate!

Student Government Association

The Student Government Association (SGA) empowers students and creates change by serving as a liaison between the student body and the college administration. SGA consists of the Assembly, which includes the Student Body President, Executive Vice President, and members of the President's Cabinet, as well as Class Presidents, and Representatives. At the start of the academic year, SGA holds elections for the Freshmen class officers as well as Representatives to serve on the SGA administration. Student Activities also assists the Student Government Association in the chartering of new student clubs in addition to the disbursement of the activity fee funds.

How can students learn about and join clubs?

The Student Government Association and the Office of Student Activities sponsor an Activities Fair at the beginning of each semester. This is an excellent opportunity to meet with club officers and representatives and join the club of their choice. Students may also visit the Student Government Association office for club information. For a full listing of current student clubs, please visit <http://mari.st/StudentClubs>.

How do students find out what's going on?

Each semester the Office of Student Activities publishes a semester long activities calendar. This publication can be found in print at the Student Activities office and on social media. It includes program dates for lectures, comedians, Cabaret acts, theatrical performances, performing arts events, concerts, films, SPC events and select club activities. Weekly updates for Student Activities and SPC sponsored events can be found on their respective social media accounts.

Campus Sustainability

Sustainability

Sustainability is defined by the World Commission on Environment and Development as “forms of progress that meet the needs of the present without compromising the ability of future generations to meet their needs.” While many conceive of “sustainability” as an “environmental issue,” the concept embraces all human activities and disciplines.

The College makes every effort to promote the broadest perspectives, expertise, and information on sustainability, and keeps our collective and ongoing focus on advancing education for a healthy, just, and sustainable future. The societal challenges to creating vibrant, secure communities, and strong economies, while preserving the earth’s life support systems on which we all depend, are daunting. Higher education has a responsibility to produce an educated and engaged citizenry and a thriving and civil society.

Key initiatives in the College’s strategic plan call for advancing the social good and promoting innovation which promote implementation of environmentally sustainable practices and to foster lifelong behaviors supporting environmental health.

Title IX

titleix@marist.edu | 845-575-3799

Mon-Fri: 8:30am-5pm

<https://linktr.ee/maristtitleix>

Office Location: Student Center 1202

Mission: Marist actively seeks to foster a campus environment of inclusion that is free from discriminatory and biased behaviors. The College is committed to preventing, responding to, and rectifying any incidents of gender-based or sexual misconduct. The Title IX Office is the on-campus administrative body that handles incidents of sexual misconduct (including sexual assault, dating/relationship violence, domestic violence) and gender-based discrimination.

What is Title IX?

1. Title IX is a federal civil rights law that says no institution of higher education can discriminate against any person on the basis of their sex or gender. Initially drafted to ensure equal opportunities for women in sports, today Title IX applies to all forms of sexual harassment and assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking.
2. Title IX is important because the law requires universities to respond promptly and effectively to address any report of sexual harassment or sexual misconduct and actively take steps to prevent it. Sexual violence on campus is viewed as a hostile environment and thus discrimination, since enduring harassment and victimization prohibits students from equal access to education.

Why is Title IX Important?

3. The law does not just apply to female students. It also prohibits discrimination based on gender identity and sexual orientation, which is important for students who identify as lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT). Support of LGBT students is critical because a national campus climate survey conducted by the Association of American Universities found LGBT students face an increased risk of sexual assault.
4. Title IX doesn't just apply to undergraduate students – graduate students and visitors are also protected under the law. The antidiscrimination law also applies to public and private elementary schools, secondary schools, and school districts. An investigation by the Associated Press uncovered 17,000 reports of sexual assaults over a four-year period at schools across the U.S., including reports from victims as young as five.

Safety, Support & Reporting

5. Title IX obligates universities to disclose all of the options and resources available to students. Students who have experienced sexual misconduct are offered resources such as medical care, emotional support, and confidential counseling whether or not they decide to report to law enforcement.
6. Additional supports universities must offer students range from academic and housing accommodations, free immediate and long-term counseling, protections from disciplinary action if they were drinking underage or using drugs when the incident happened, and the prohibition of retaliation against students who report. Students can even choose to file a report anonymously or report on behalf of a peer they know has experienced sexual harassment or assault.

Fairness

7. Title IX recognizes all students have the right to due process. The guidance directs universities to balance being as supportive as possible to the student who has experienced the incident while being fair to the person who is reported and honoring their right to due process.
8. Schools are required to be fair. Both parties have the right to present their case, both are allowed to have an advisor of their choice present during Title IX proceedings, and both must receive notification of the outcome.

Accountability

9. The Department of Education's Office for Civil Rights enforces Title IX and investigates complaints filed by students when a university's response falls short.
10. Schools may not retaliate against someone filing a complaint, and they must make an effort to protect the victim from retaliatory behavior and harassment.

One-on-One Writing Center Sessions (ONLINE AND IN-PERSON)

The Writing Center offers one-on-one writing tutoring to all students on campus, both undergraduate and graduate students, in all fields of study and at all levels of study. Students can make an appointment for a Writing Center session by visiting marist.mywconline.com. Our Writing Center is staffed by a combination of professional staff and peer undergraduate tutors, and students can pick who they want to work with when they make an appointment. Our tutors have experience working with writers at all stages of the writing process--from choosing a topic and drafting a thesis statement to re-organizing a draft and making the final edits. We can work with students on pretty much any type of writing project they might be working on, including both academic and non-academic writing. Whether they're working on a PowerPoint presentation for a sociology class, a lab report for biology, an application essay for grad school, or a forum post for their First-Year Seminar course, our tutors are here to help.

In-person Tutoring

Our Writing Center is located on the third floor of the library in room 334. Stop in to say hi, sign up for an appointment, or work with an available tutor.

Online Tutoring

We offer two types of online tutoring services: Virtual Face-to-Face tutoring and email draft tutoring.

- Virtual F2F Tutoring: Our Virtual F2F (face-to-face) tutoring services are essentially a video call with a tutor where the tutor and student can virtually connect and work on the same online document simultaneously. It's a great option for students who are just getting started writing and want to brainstorm some ideas. It's also great for students who have a draft that they need to revise, but they're not quite sure where to start.
- Email Draft Tutoring: Email tutoring, our asynchronous tutoring option, lets students upload a draft to a tutor and receive written feedback on the day of their scheduled email appointment. This feedback is meant to be facilitative—we focus on students' ideas, we make sure they're meeting the goals of the assignment, and we let them know what's working well and what could be improved in future drafts. And while we do not edit student papers, we can teach them how to proofread their own work.

You can learn more about the Writing Center's online services by visiting the Online Writing Center Appointment Guide. There you will find step-by-step guides for scheduling virtual appointments and submitting email drafts. Questions? Contact Writing.Center@marist.edu.

Writing Workshops for Students (ONLINE ONLY)

In addition to our one-on-one conferences, the Writing Center offers writing workshops on various topics (like how to write a strong thesis statement, how to organize ideas in writing, and how to get started on a new writing assignment).

Writing Resources for Students and Instructors

We have a number of writing resources available on Brightspace for both students and instructors, with more being added every week. Students should Join our Brightspace site to receive updates and access to writing tools.
